

K-love is very important to me. It serves a vital purpose by uplifting all who listen to it. This could not happen through any other kind of programming. I believe K love serves the public by providing a strong Christian message to those in need and also just as a constant uplift to all who listen to it.